THE INTERLINEAR BIBLE.

IN this edition the large type represents the agreement of the Revised and Authorised Versions. When the two Versions differ, the renderings of both are printed in small type; those of the Revised Version in the upper line, and those of the Authorised Version in the lower line. A blank in the upper or lower line indicates the absence of any corresponding words in the Revised Version or the Authorised Version respectively. Thus the large type read in conjunction with the upper line of small type gives the continuous text of the Revised Version, and read in conjunction with the lower line of small type it gives the continuous text of the Authorised Version.

Where the variations could not conveniently be indicated by the use of upper and lower lines, they have been pointed out by other means, such as the insertion of the words "[R. V. only"].

With the exceptions specified below, all the variations have been exhibited, including those of spelling and punctuation. In the case of variations of punctuation, the word preceding the stop has been twice printed for the sake of clearness even when it is identical in the two Versions: thus in Luke i. 3 the upper line "Theophilus;" shews the punctuation of the Revised Version, the lower line "Theophilus," that of the Authorised Version.

The variations which have not been exhibited are as follows:

(1) Variations of arrangement. The division of the text into paragraphs adopted in the R.V. has been followed, with the consequent changes in the use of capitals at the beginning of verses, and the omission of the paragraph marks (¶) of the A.V.

In the poetical books and passages the arrangement of the R.V. in lines, to exhibit the parallelism which is characteristic of Hebrew poetry, has been followed, with similar consequent changes.

The spaces by which a change of subject is indicated in the R.V. also appear without notice.

(2) Matter which forms no part of the text. The headings of the chapters and the headlines of the pages which appear in the A.V. are not given in this edition.

(3) The use of italics. When the only difference between the two Versions consists in the use of italic or roman type, the Revised Version has been followed. To have recorded every variation of this kind would have been to produce an entirely false impression as to the amount of difference between the two Versions. The italics of modern editions of the A.V. are largely due to later editors and not to the translators of 1611; nor is the use of them by any means consistent. The principle which guided the Revisers was, as may be gathered from their Prefaces, to print in ordinary type all words which are plainly implied in the original language and are necessary in English, and to reserve the use of italics for words which do not appear to be distinctly involved in the original.

The central references are those of the edition of the R.V. with references published by the University Presses in 1898. For all explanations the reader is referred to the Preface prefixed to that edition, which is reprinted at the beginning of this book (p. vii).

The marginal notes of the Revised Version, which form an important part of the Revisers' work, and should by no means be neglected, appear at the foot of the pages with figures prefixed: those of the Authorised Version are placed below them, marked by the signs *, †, etc.

PREFACE TO THE EDITION WITH MARGINAL REFERENCES.

THE Companies appointed for the Revision of the Old and New Testaments had the question of marginal references under consideration at an early period in the course of their work. They submitted it to two small Committees, one from each Company, who were requested to confer and report to the Companies. The Committee of the Old Testament Company were of opinion that, until it was known whether the Revised Version would be accepted, it would be premature to furnish it with marginal references, and no further steps were taken by them. The Committee of the New Testament Company, however, the active members of which were Dr. Scrivener and Dr. Moulton, compiled a very elaborate body of marginal references for the New Testament, which were printed for the use of the Company, but for which the Committee alone were responsible.

In preparing these references the Committee were allowed by the Syndics of the Cambridge University Press to make use of the references in the Paragraph Bible edited for them by Dr. Scrivener in 1873. The references so prepared were submitted to the Company, who expressed a general approval of them, but resolved to issue the Revised Version of the New Testament in the first instance without any marginal references, except such as had already been inserted by them. At the same time they conveyed to the University Presses of Oxford and Cambridge their earnest wish that, in consideration of the labour care and thought bestowed upon these references, a place might be found for them in their integrity in some editions of the Revised Version. It was therefore agreed by the University Presses to print one edition at least of the Revised Version of the New Testament with the marginal references prepared by the Committee of the New Testament Company of Revisers. After the death of Dr. Scrivener the task of final revision and verification remained in Dr. Moulton's hands, but owing to unforeseen delays it had not been completed at the time of his death in February, 1898.

In 1895 the University Presses undertook to meet the increasing demand, both at home and in America, for an edition of the complete Revised Version with marginal references. A Committee was appointed to superintend the work, consisting of the Rev. Dr. Price, Master of Pembroke College, Oxford; the Ven. Dr. Palmer, Archdeacon of Oxford; Dr. W. Aldis Wright, Vice-Master of Trinity College, Cambridge; and the Rev. Dr. Kirkpatrick, Regius Professor of Hebrew in the University of Cambridge. On Archdeacon Palmer's death in October 1895, the Rev. Dr. Ince, Regius Professor of Divinity in the University of Oxford, succeeded to his place on the Committee.

The general editorship was entrusted to the Rev. Dr. Stokoe of Lincoln College, Oxford, and the following scholars were appointed to assist him in preparing the references for the Old Testament and Apocrypha; the Rev. Dr. Barnes, Fellow of Peterhouse, Cambridge; the Rev. A. W. Greenup, St John's College, Cambridge; the Rev. E. R. Massey, Exeter College, Oxford; and the Rev. J. W. Nutt, late Fellow of All Souls' College, Oxford. In regard to the New Testament references Dr. Stokoe was instructed to confer with Dr. Moulton, who undertook to adapt for this edition the fuller body of references upon which he had been engaged. Since Dr. Moulton's death, this part of the work has been completed, under the Editor's supervision, by the Rev. J. H. Moulton, late Fellow of King's College, Cambridge, and the Rev. A. W. Greenup, both of whom had already been assisting Dr. Moulton.

The marginal references given in the original edition of the Authorised Version of 1611 have been retained as far as possible, and the Contributors have availed themselves largely of the references in Dr. Scrivener's Paragraph Bible, which they were instructed to make the basis of their work.

The references given may be arranged under the following heads:—

1. Quotations, or exact verbal parallels.
2. Passages referred to for similarity of idea or of expression.
3. Passages referred to by way of explanation or illustration.
4. Historical and Geographical references:—names of persons, places, etc., which recur.
5. Passages referred to as illustrating differences of rendering between the Authorised and Revised Versions.

The following modes of indication have been used:—

1. A simple index letter is employed, when there is an exact or close parallel between the passages.
2. "Cited", or "Cited from", is prefixed to cases of actual quotation.
3. "Cp." (compare) is prefixed to references, when the parallel is less exact.
4. "See" is prefixed:—
  - (a) When reference is made to a parallel passage, on which a body of references has been collected:
  - (b) In referring to longer passages, parallel or explanatory. When one longer passage is given as a parallel to another of similar length, the mode of indication is "For &c., see &c.".
5. "al." (= alibi, elsewhere) is added to indicate that all the parallel passages are not given.

6. "(?)" is placed after a reference, when its appropriateness is doubtful.
7. "(mg.)", "(& mg.)", "(for mg.)", "(mg. for mg.)" are used when references relate solely or partly to the Revisers' marginal renderings.

When several references are given, with different modes of indication, they are arranged in this order:—

1. References with simple index letter:
2. „ which have "Cited" or "Cited from" prefixed:
3. „ which have "Cp." prefixed:
4. „ which have "See" prefixed.

When several references have the same mode of indication, they are arranged as follows:—

1. References to other verses in the same Chapter:
2. „ to other passages in the same Book:
3. „ to passages in other Books, according to the order of these Books in the Bible.

The Revisers' marginal renderings are transferred in this edition to the foot of the page, together with all other notes in the margin of the Revised Version, except:—

- (a) When simple references given by the Revisers have been incorporated in the new body of references:
- (b) When a marginal note refers to some different division or order in the original.

In previous editions of the Revised Version the numbers of the verses were placed on the inner margin of each page.

PREFACE OF THE REVISERS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT.

THE Revision of the Authorised Version was undertaken in consequence of a Resolution passed by both houses of the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury, as has been fully explained in the Preface to the Revised Version of the New Testament, which was first published in May 1881. When the two Companies were appointed for carrying out this work, the following General Principles, among others, were laid down by the Revision Committee of Convocation for their guidance:—

‘1. To introduce as few alterations as possible into the Text of the Authorised Version consistently with faithfulness.’

‘2. To limit, as far as possible, the expression of such alterations to the language of the Authorised and earlier English Versions.’

‘4. That the Text to be adopted be that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating; and that when the Text so adopted differs from that from which the Authorised Version was made, the alteration be indicated in the margin*.’

‘7. To revise the headings of chapters and pages, paragraphs, italics, and punctuation.’

In order to shew the manner in which the Old Testament Company have endeavoured to carry out their instructions, it will be convenient to treat the subjects mentioned in the foregoing rules in a somewhat different order.

It will be observed that in Rule 4 the word ‘Text’ is used in a different sense from that in Rule 1, and in the case of the Old Testament denotes the Hebrew or Aramaic original of the several books. In this respect the task of the Revisers has been much simpler than that which the New Testament Company had before them. The Received, or, as it is commonly called, the Massoretic Text of the Old Testament Scriptures has come down to us in manuscripts which are of no very great antiquity, and which all belong to the same family or recension<sup>1</sup>. That other recensions were at one time in existence is probable from the variations in the Ancient Versions, the oldest of which, namely the Greek or Septuagint, was made, at least in part, some two centuries before the Christian era. But as the state of knowledge on the subject is not at present such as to justify any attempt at an entire reconstruction of the text on the authority of the Versions, the Revisers have thought it most prudent to adopt the Massoretic Text as the basis of their work, and to depart from it, as the Authorised Translators had done<sup>2</sup>, only in exceptional cases. With regard to the variations in the Massoretic Text itself, the Revisers have endeavoured to translate what appeared to them to be the best reading in the text, and where the alternative reading seemed sufficiently probable or important they have placed it in the margin. In some few instances of extreme difficulty a reading has been adopted on the authority of the Ancient Versions, and the departure from the Massoretic Text recorded in the margin. In other cases, where the versions appeared to supply a very probable though not so necessary a correction of the text, the text has been left and the variation indicated in the margin only.

In endeavouring to carry out as fully as possible the spirit of Rules 1 and 2, the Revisers have borne in mind that it was their duty not to make a new translation but to revise one already existing, which for more than two centuries and a half had held the position of an English classic. They have therefore departed from it only in cases where they disagreed with the Translators of 1611 as to the meaning or construction of a word or sentence; or where it was necessary for the sake of uniformity to render such parallel passages as were identical in Hebrew by the same English words, so that an English reader might know at once by comparison that a difference in the translation corresponded to a difference in the original; or where the language of the Authorised Version was liable to be misunderstood by reason of its being archaic or obscure; or finally, where the rendering of an earlier English version seemed preferable, or where by an apparently slight change it was possible to bring out more fully the meaning of a passage of which the translation was already substantially accurate.

It has been thought advisable in regard to the word 'JEHOVAH' to follow the usage of the Authorised Version, and not to insert it uniformly in place of 'LORD' or 'God', which when printed in small capitals represent the words substituted by Jewish custom for the ineffable Name according to the vowel points by which it is distinguished. It will be found therefore that in this respect the Authorised Version has been departed from only in a few passages, in which the introduction of a proper name seemed to be required.

Terms of natural history have been changed only where it was certain that the Authorised Version was incorrect and where there was sufficient evidence for the substituted rendering. In cases of doubt the alternative rendering has been given in the margin; and even where no doubt existed, but where there was no familiar English equivalent for the original word, the Old Version has been allowed to remain<sup>1</sup>, and the more accurate term has been placed in the margin.

In some words of very frequent occurrence, the Authorised Version being either inadequate or inconsistent, and sometimes misleading, changes have been introduced with as much uniformity as appeared practicable or desirable. For instance, 'the tabernacle of the congregation' has been everywhere changed to 'the tent of meeting', on account of Exodus xxv. 22, xxix. 42, 43, and also because 'the tabernacle of the congregation' conveys an entirely wrong sense. The words 'tabernacle' and 'tent', as the renderings of two different Hebrew words, are in the Authorised Version frequently interchanged in such a manner as to lead to confusion; and the Revisers have endeavoured throughout the Pentateuch to preserve a consistent distinction between them. Their practice in regard to the words 'assembly' and 'congregation' has been the same in principle, although they have contented themselves with introducing greater consistency of rendering without aiming at absolute uniformity. In consequence of the changes which have taken place in the English language, the term 'meat offering' has become inappropriate to describe an offering of which flesh was no part; and by the alteration to 'meal offering' a sufficiently accurate representation of the original has been obtained with the least possible change of form.

As regards the use of words, there are only a few cases in which it has been found needful to deviate from the language employed in the Authorised Version. One of these deviations occurs so frequently that it may be well to state briefly why it was adopted. The word 'peoples' was nowhere used by King James's Translators in the Old Testament, and in the New Testament it occurs only twice (Rev. x. 11, xvii. 15). The effect of this was to leave the rendering of numerous passages inadequate or obscure or even positively misleading. Thus in one of the best known Psalms (Ps. lxxii.), where the Septuagint has λαοί and the Vulgate populi, the English had 'Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee'; leaving it at least doubtful whether the 'nations' of verse 4, or God's people, Israel, be referred to. And in Isaiah lv. 4, 'Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people', the word 'people' is naturally understood by the English reader to refer to Israel.

Again, the Hebrew word goyim 'nations', which is applied to the nations of Canaan dispossessed by the Hebrews, and then also to the surrounding nations among whom the people of Israel were afterwards dispersed, acquired in later times a moral significance, which is represented in the Authorised Version by the rendering 'heathen' or 'Gentiles'. While recognizing this moral sense of the word, the Revisers have employed it much more sparingly than their predecessors had done.

Similarly, the Hebrew Sheol, which signifies the abode of departed spirits, and corresponds to the Greek Hades, or the under world, is variously rendered in the Authorised Version by 'grave', 'pit', and 'hell'. Of these renderings 'hell', if it could be taken in its original sense as used in the Creeds, would be a fairly adequate equivalent for the Hebrew word; but it is so commonly understood of the place of torment that to employ it frequently would lead to inevitable misunderstanding. The Revisers therefore in the historical narratives have left the rendering 'the grave' or 'the pit' in the text, with a marginal note 'Heb. Sheol' to indicate that it does not signify 'the place of burial'; while in the poetical writings they have put most commonly 'Sheol' in the text and 'the grave' in the margin. In Isaiah xiv. however, where 'hell' is used in more of its original sense and is less liable to be misunderstood, and where any change in so familiar a passage which was not distinctly an improvement would be a decided loss, the Revisers have contented themselves with leaving 'hell' in the text, and have connected it with other passages by putting 'Sheol' in the margin.

In connexion with this it may be mentioned that 'Abaddon', which has hitherto been known to the English reader of the Bible only from the New Testament (Rev. ix. 11), has been introduced in three passages (Job xxvi. 6; Prov. xv. 11, xxvii. 20), where a proper name appears to be required for giving vividness and point.

The Hebrew word Ashêrah, which is uniformly and wrongly rendered 'grove' in the Authorised Version, most probably denotes the wooden symbol of a goddess; and the Revisers therefore have not hesitated to introduce it as a proper name in the singular (Judg. vi. 25, &c.), with the plurals Asherim (Ex. xxxiv. 13, &c.) and Asheroth (Judg. iii. 7, &c.), following the analogy of the Baalim (Judg. iii. 7) and the Ashtaroth (Judg. ii. 13), which are already familiar.

In regard to the language of the Authorised Version, the Revisers have thought it no part of their duty to reduce it to conformity with modern usage, and have therefore left untouched all archaisms, whether of language or construction, which though not in familiar use cause a reader no embarrassment and lead to no misunderstanding. They are aware that in so doing they will disappoint the large English-speaking race on the other side of the Atlantic, and it is a question upon which they are prepared to agree to a friendly difference of opinion. The principle by which they have been guided has been clear and consistent. Where an archaic word or expression was liable to be misunderstood or at least was not perfectly intelligible, they have substituted for it another, in equally good use at the time the Authorised Version was made, and expressing all that the archaism was intended to convey, but more familiar to the modern reader. In such cases the gain was greater than the loss. But in other instances where the word or expression, although obsolete, was not unintelligible, it was thought that the change would involve greater loss than gain, and the old rendering was therefore allowed to stand. More especially was this the case when the archaism was a perfectly correct rendering of the original and there was no exact modern equivalent for it. The principle adopted by the Company will be best illustrated by two typical examples. The verb 'to ear' in the sense of 'to plough' and the substantive 'earring' for 'ploughing' were very reluctantly abandoned, and only because it was ascertained that their meaning was unknown to many persons of good intelligence and education. But it was easy to put in their place equivalents which had a pedigree of almost equal antiquity, and it would have been an excess of conservatism to refuse to substitute for an unintelligible archaism an expression to which no ambiguity could be attached. On the other hand the word 'bolloed' (Ex. ix. 31), which signifies 'poddled for seed' and is known in provincial dialects, has no synonym in literary English. To have discarded it in favour of a less accurate or more paraphrastic expression would have been to impoverish the language; and it was therefore left, because it exactly expresses one view which is taken of the meaning of the original.

One of the few instances in which the language of the Authorised Version has been modified in accordance with later usage is the change of the neuter possessive pronoun from 'his' to 'its'. It is well known that 'its' does not occur in the Bible of 1611, and it does not appear to have been introduced into any edition before 1660. But it is found ten times in Shakespeare, and there is other evidence to shew that at the time of the Authorised Version it was coming into use. It was found necessary in some cases to substitute 'its' for 'his' in order to avoid obscurity, and there seemed no good reason, when it was once introduced, for refusing to admit it generally when it referred to purely inanimate objects.

In making minor changes, whether in translation or language, the Revisers have followed the example of the translators of the Authorised Version, who allowed themselves in this respect a reasonable freedom, without permitting their liberty to degenerate into license.

It will be at once seen that the old division of the books into chapters and verses has been abandoned in favour of the arrangement in paragraphs, the numbering of the chapters and verses being however retained for convenience of reference. Where the change of subject seemed to require a greater break than was marked by the beginning of a new paragraph, it has been indicated by a space before the paragraph. Occasionally the divisions of the chapters in the Authorised Version differ from those in the common Hebrew Bibles. In such cases the variations are given in the margin. In the Psalms, the titles are printed in smaller type, as in some modern English Bibles, which differ in this respect from the edition of 1611. One consequence of the arrangement in paragraphs has been the omission of the headings of chapters, which for other and more important reasons it was thought advisable to abandon, as involving questions which belong rather to the province of the commentator than to that of the translator. With the headings of chapters the head-lines of pages naturally disappeared also, and for the same reason.

In the poetical portions, besides the division into paragraphs, the Revisers have adopted an arrangement in lines, so as to exhibit the parallelism which is characteristic of Hebrew Poetry. But they have not extended this arrangement to the prophetic books, the language of which although frequently marked by parallelism is, except in purely lyrical passages, rather of the nature of lofty and impassioned prose.

In the use of italics the Revisers departed from the custom of the Authorised Version and adopted as their rule the following resolution of their Company:

'That all such words now printed in italics, as are plainly implied in the Hebrew and necessary in English, be printed in common type.'

But where any doubt existed as to the exact rendering of the Hebrew, all words which have been added in order to give completeness to the English expression are printed in italic type, so that the reader by omitting them may be able to see how far their insertion is justified by the words of the original. This of course is especially true of those renderings for which an alternative is given in the margin, where the roman and italic type play exactly opposite parts.

To complete the account of the Revised Version it remains only to describe the marginal notes. These will be found to contain

(1) The renderings of such variations in the Massoretic Text as appeared to be of sufficient importance. These variations are known by the technical names of K'ri (read) and C'thib (written), which denote that the K'ri, or reading in the margin of the Hebrew Bible, is to be substituted for the C'thib which appears in the written text. The Revisers have generally, though not uniformly, rendered the C'thib in the text, and left the K'ri in the margin, with the introductory note 'Or, according to another reading', or 'Another reading is'. When the K'ri has been followed in the text, the C'thib has been placed in the margin, if it represented a variation of sufficient importance.

(2) Alternative renderings, introduced by 'Or'. These are either different meanings of the word or passage, or they serve to connect it with other renderings elsewhere.

(3) Literal renderings of the Hebrew or Aramaic, indicated by the prefix 'Heb.' or 'Aram.'

(4) Changes of text made on the authority of the ancient Versions.

(5) Readings from ancient Versions which appeared to be of sufficient importance to be noticed.

(6) Renderings of the Hebrew consonants as read with different vowel points, or as differently divided. These are introduced by the words 'Or, as otherwise read'.

(7) Marginal references to other passages, which are either strictly parallel, or serve the purpose of illustrating or justifying a particular rendering.

(8) Explanations of certain proper names, the meaning of which is referred to in the text.

In the Proper Names the Revisers have endeavoured to ascertain the system of transliteration adopted by the Translators of the Authorised Version and to carry it out with somewhat greater consistency. They have not however attempted anything like rigid uniformity, and have left unchanged all those names which by usage have become English; as, for instance, Moses, Aaron, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and the like.

Among the Rules laid down by the Revision Committee of Convocation for the guidance of the Revisers was one that no change should be finally made in the text of the Authorised Version except by the vote of two-thirds of the Company present and voting; and this Rule has been invariably acted upon. The result has been that in many cases a rendering which was preferred by the majority of the Company voting has been recorded in the margin, the majority not being sufficient to give it a place in the text. But all questions of marginal readings, as well as of punctuation and division into paragraphs, except where these affected the sense of a passage, were decided by a simple majority.

It may be of some interest to describe the method observed by the Company in their work, if only to shew that every question raised was carefully and deliberately considered. In the first Revision it was the practice for the Secretary to read over each verse, first in the original and then in the Authorised Version: the proposals for change were then taken; first those communicated in writing by absent members, and next those made by the members present. Each proposal was moved, and if seconded was discussed and voted upon; the decision in the first Revision being by a majority only. If a proposal met with no seconder, it was not discussed but allowed to drop. In the second Revision, the Secretary read out in order the changes which had been made at the first Revision; if these were unchallenged they were allowed to remain, otherwise they were put to the vote and affirmed or rejected according as they were or were not supported by the requisite majority of two-thirds. In the second Revision new propositions could only be made by special permission of the Company, and discussion was limited, as far as possible, to exceptional cases. In the final review, which was in reality the completion of the second Revision, the Company employed themselves in making a general survey of what they had done, deciding finally upon reserved points, harmonizing inconsistencies, smoothing down roughnesses, removing unnecessary changes, and generally giving finish and completeness to their work. Everything in this final survey was decided by the vote of a majority of two-thirds.

The Revisers had already made some progress, and had in fact gone twice through the Pentateuch, before they secured the co-operation of the American Old Testament Revision Company. The first Revision of the several books was submitted to the consideration of the American Revisers, and, except in the case of the Pentateuch, the English Company had the benefit of their criticisms and suggestions before they proceeded to the second Revision. The second Revision was in like manner forwarded to America, and the latest thoughts of the American Revisers were in the hands of the English Company at their final review. In every instance the suggestions from America were treated with the same consideration as those proceeding from members of the English Company, and were adopted or rejected on their merits. It was a part of the terms of agreement with the American Company that all points of ultimate difference between them and the English Revisers should be placed on record, and they will accordingly be found fully stated at the end of the Old Testament, or at the end of the several portions, according as the Revised Version appears in one or more volumes. Many of them will be found to be changes of language which are involved in the essentially different circumstances of American and English readers; others express a preference for the marginal rendering over that given in the text; others again involve a real difference of opinion; but all shew that they have been dictated by the same leading principle, the sincere desire to give to modern readers a faithful representation of the meaning of the original documents.

It could not but be expected that in the course of fourteen years many changes would take place in the members of the Company. Of the original number who first put their hands to the work on the 30th of June 1870, only fifteen now remain. Ten of the Company have been removed by death, and two resigned: the places of these were filled from time to time by others; but since October 1875 no new members have been added. The Revision was completed in eighty-five sessions, ending on 20th June, 1884; and it occupied 792 days. The greater part of the sessions were for ten days each, and each day the Company generally sat for six hours. The labour therefore has been great, but it has been given ungrudgingly; and now with a feeling of deep thankfulness to Almighty God, and the earnest hope that their endeavours may with His blessing tend to a clearer knowledge of the Old Testament Scriptures, the Revisers bring their long task to a close.

GENESIS.

I <sup>1</sup> IN the <sup>a</sup>beginning God created the heaven and the earth. <sup>2</sup> And the earth was <sup>b</sup>waste without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the spirit of God <sup>1</sup>moved upon the face of the waters. <sup>3</sup> And God said, <sup>d</sup>Let there be light: and there was light. <sup>4</sup> And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided <sup>e</sup>the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup> And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. † And there was the evening and there was the morning, one day.

<sup>6</sup> And God said, <sup>e</sup>Let there be a <sup>2†</sup>firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. <sup>7</sup> And God made the firmament, and <sup>h</sup>divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were <sup>i</sup>above the firmament: and it was so. <sup>8</sup> And God called the firmament Heaven. And <sup>there</sup> was the evening and there was morning, a the morning were the second day.

<sup>9</sup> And God said, <sup>k</sup>Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so. <sup>10</sup> And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good. <sup>11</sup> And God said, <sup>c</sup>Let the earth <sup>put</sup> bring forth §grass, the herb yielding seed, <sup>and</sup> the fruit tree <sup>bearing</sup> yielding fruit after <sup>its</sup> his kind, <sup>wherein</sup> is the seed thereof, <sup>whose</sup> seed <sup>is</sup> in itself, upon the earth: and it was so. <sup>12</sup> And the earth brought forth grass, <sup>and</sup> herb yielding seed after <sup>its</sup> his kind, <sup>and</sup> the tree <sup>bearing</sup> yielding fruit, <sup>wherein</sup> is the seed thereof, <sup>whose</sup> seed <sup>was</sup> in itself, after <sup>its</sup> his kind: and God saw that it was good. <sup>13</sup> And <sup>there</sup> was the evening and there was morning, a the morning were the third day.

to look upon: <sup>12</sup> <sup>and</sup> <sup>Therefore</sup> it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they <sup>c</sup> will kill me, but they will save thee alive. <sup>13</sup> Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy <sup>sake,</sup> <sup>sake;</sup> and <sup>that</sup> my soul <sup>may</sup> <sup>shall</sup> live because of thee. <sup>14</sup> And it came to pass, that, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman that she was very fair. <sup>15</sup> <sup>And the</sup> <sup>The</sup> princes <sup>also</sup> of Pharaoh saw her, and <sup>praised</sup> <sup>commended</sup> her <sup>to</sup> <sup>before</sup> Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house. <sup>16</sup> And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and <sup>he-asses,</sup> <sup>he asses,</sup> and menservants, and maidservants, and <sup>she-asses,</sup> <sup>she asses,</sup> and camels. <sup>17</sup> And the LORD <sup>g</sup> plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai Abram's wife. <sup>18</sup> And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife? <sup>19</sup> Why saidst thou, She is my sister? <sup>so</sup> <sup>that I took</sup> <sup>I might have taken</sup> her to be my <sup>her to be my</sup> <sup>her to me to</sup> wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way. <sup>20</sup> And Pharaoh <sup>gave men charge</sup> <sup>commanded his men</sup> concerning him: and they <sup>brought him on the way,</sup> <sup>sent him away,</sup> and his wife, and all that he had.

he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the name of the LORD. <sup>5</sup> And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents. <sup>6</sup> And <sup>a</sup>the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together. <sup>7</sup> <sup>e</sup>And there was a strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: and <sup>f</sup>the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelled then in the land. <sup>8</sup> And Abram said unto Lot, <sup>i</sup>Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; <sup>k</sup>for we <sup>are</sup> <sup>be</sup> *brethren. <sup>9</sup> <sup>l</sup>Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou <sup>take</sup> depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left. <sup>10</sup> And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the <sup>10</sup>Plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the LORD <sup>r</sup>destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, <sup>'like</sup> <sup>even</sup> as the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as thou <sup>goest</sup> <sup>comest</sup> unto <sup>u</sup>Zoar. <sup>11</sup> So Lot chose him all the <sup>Plain</sup> <sup>plain</sup> of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other. <sup>12</sup> Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the <sup>Plain</sup> <sup>plain</sup>, and <sup>moved</sup> <sup>pitched</sup> his tent as far as toward Sodom. <sup>13</sup> Now the men of Sodom <sup>b</sup>were wicked and sinners <sup>against</sup> <sup>before</sup> the LORD exceedingly. <sup>14</sup> And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou <sup>art</sup> <sup>'northward</sup> <sup>art</sup> <sup>northward</sup>, and <sup>southward</sup> <sup>southward</sup>, and <sup>eastward</sup> <sup>eastward</sup>, and westward: <sup>15</sup> for all the land which thou seest, <sup>a</sup>to thee will I give it, and <sup>b</sup>to thy seed for ever. <sup>16</sup> And <sup>c</sup>I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered. <sup>17</sup> Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for unto thee will I give it. <sup>18</sup> And Abram <sup>I will give it unto thee.</sup> <sup>Then</sup> Abram <sup>moved</sup> <sup>removed</sup> his tent, and came and <sup>g</sup>dwelt <sup>by the <sup>20</sup>oaks</sup> <sup>in the †plain</sup> of Mamre, which <sup>are</sup> <sup>is</sup> in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

Jacob <sup>1</sup>stole away *unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled. <sup>21</sup> So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over <sup>2</sup>the <sup>b</sup>River, and <sup>c</sup>set his face toward the mountain of Gilead.

<sup>22</sup> And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled. <sup>23</sup> And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and <sup>he</sup> overtook him in the mountain of Gilead. <sup>24</sup> And God came to Laban the Syrian <sup>d</sup>in a dream <sup>of the</sup> by night, and said unto him, Take heed to thyself that thou speak not to Jacob <sup>e</sup>either good or bad. <sup>25</sup> And <sup>Then</sup> Laban came up with Jacob. them, and said unto them, I am to be <sup>e</sup>gathered unto my people:

Ephron the Hittite, <sup>30</sup> in the

in the land of Canaan, <sup>g</sup>which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite for a possession of a <sup>buryingplace</sup> buryingplace: <sup>31</sup> there they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there <sup>k</sup>they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife;

purchased from the children of an end of <sup>charging</sup> commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the bury my father, and I will come again. <sup>6</sup> And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear. <sup>7</sup> And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, <sup>8</sup> and all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left <sup>9</sup> in the land of Goshen. <sup>9</sup> And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company. <sup>10</sup> And they came to the threshing-floor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there <sup>11</sup> they lamented with a very great and sore lamentation: and he <sup>12</sup> made a mourning for his father seven days. <sup>11</sup> And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous <sup>1</sup> mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called * Abel-mizraim, which is beyond Jordan. <sup>12</sup> And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them: <sup>13</sup> for <sup>k</sup> his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham <sup>n</sup> bought with the field for a possession of a <sup>buryingplace</sup> of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

<sup>14</sup> And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father. <sup>15</sup> And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, <sup>It may be that Joseph will</sup> hate us, and will <sup>will peradventure</sup> requite us all the evil <sup>fully</sup> certainly which we did unto him. <sup>16</sup> And they † sent a <sup>message messenger</sup> unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying, <sup>17</sup> So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the <sup>transgression trespass</sup> of thy brethren, and their <sup>sin, sin;</sup> for <sup>that</sup> they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the <sup>transgression trespass</sup> of the servants of <sup>a</sup> the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake unto him. <sup>18</sup> And his brethren also went and † fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be thy servants. <sup>19</sup> And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for <sup>d</sup> am I in the place of God? <sup>20</sup> <sup>And But</sup> as for you, ye <sup>meant thought</sup> evil against me; but † God meant it <sup>for unto</sup> good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive. <sup>21</sup> Now therefore fear ye not: <sup>h</sup> I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake <sup>2i†</sup> kindly unto them.

<sup>22</sup> And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years. <sup>23</sup> And Joseph saw Ephraim's children <sup>j</sup> of the third generation: the <sup>i</sup> children also of Machir the son of Manasseh were <sup>born</sup> § brought up upon Joseph's knees. <sup>24</sup> And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: <sup>but and</sup> <sup>o</sup> God will surely visit you, and bring you <sup>up</sup> out of this land unto the land <sup>p</sup> which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. <sup>25</sup> And <sup>q</sup> Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence. <sup>26</sup> So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they <sup>r</sup> embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

EXODUS.

the land. <sup>11</sup> Therefore they did set over them taskmasters <sup>b</sup>to afflict them with their <sup>c</sup>burdens. And they built for Pharaoh <sup>d</sup>store cities, Pithom and <sup>e</sup>Raamses. <sup>12</sup> †But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and <sup>the</sup> more they spread abroad. And they <sup>2f</sup>were grieved because of the children of Israel. <sup>13</sup> And the Egyptians made the children of Israel <sup>i</sup>to serve with rigour: <sup>14</sup> and they <sup>j</sup>made their lives bitter with hard <sup>service</sup>, in <sup>mortar</sup> and in brick, and in all manner of service in the <sup>field</sup>; all their service, wherein they made them <sup>serve</sup> <sup>serve, was</sup> with rigour.

<sup>15</sup> And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Ship-rah, and the name of the other Puah: <sup>16</sup> and he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the <sup>birthstool</sup> <sup>stools</sup>; if it be a son, then ye shall kill <sup>him</sup>; but if it be a daughter, then she shall live. <sup>17</sup> But the midwives <sup>p</sup>feared God, and <sup>q</sup>did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive. <sup>18</sup> And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men children alive?

<sup>2</sup> And the woman conceived, and bare a son: and <sup>j</sup>when she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months. <sup>3</sup> And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of

Pharaoh came down to <sup>bathe</sup> wash <sup>herself</sup> at the river; and her maidens walked along by the <sup>river</sup> <sup>river's</sup> side; and <sup>when</sup> she saw the ark among the flags, and <sup>sent</sup> her <sup>handmaid</sup> <sup>maid</sup> to fetch it. <sup>6</sup> And <sup>when</sup> she <sup>had</sup> opened it, and <sup>saw</sup> the child: and, behold, the babe wept.

And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children. <sup>7</sup> Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call <sup>to</sup> thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

<sup>8</sup> And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.

<sup>9</sup> And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it. <sup>10</sup> And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became <sup>b</sup>her son. And she called his name <sup>3Moses</sup> <sup>*Moses</sup>; and <sup>she</sup> said, Because I <sup>4d</sup>drew him out of the water.

<sup>11</sup> And it came to pass in those days, <sup>f</sup>when Moses was grown up, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their <sup>i</sup>burdens: and he <sup>saw</sup> <sup>spied</sup> an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren. <sup>12</sup> And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, <sup>k</sup>he <sup>smote</sup> <sup>slew</sup> the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand. <sup>13</sup> And <sup>when</sup>

<sup>l</sup>he went out the second day, and, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow? <sup>14</sup> And he said, <sup>o</sup>Who made thee †a prince and a judge over us? <sup>thinkest</sup> <sup>intendest</sup> thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely

of Midian had seven daughters: and <sup>t</sup>they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. <sup>17</sup> And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and are idle, ye are idle: therefore ye say, Let us go and <sup>do</sup> sacrifice to the LORD. <sup>18</sup> Go therefore now, and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks. <sup>19</sup> And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they <sup>1</sup>were in evil case, <sup>when</sup> it was said, Ye shall not <sup>minish</sup> from your <sup>bricks, your</sup> bricks of your <sup>daily</sup> tasks. <sup>20</sup> And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh: <sup>21</sup> and <sup>e</sup>they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; because ye have made our savour *to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us. <sup>22</sup> And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou <sup>so</sup> evil entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me? <sup>23</sup> For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath <sup>evil entreated</sup> done evil to this people; †neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

Thus saith the <sup>LORD, the</sup> LORD God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse <sup>a</sup>to humble thyself before me? let my people go, that they may serve me. <sup>4</sup> Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, <sup>to-morrow</sup> will I bring the <sup>locusts</sup> into thy <sup>border</sup>: <sup>5</sup> and they shall cover the <sup>coast</sup> face of the earth, that one <sup>shall not</sup> be able to see the earth: and †they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field: <sup>6</sup> and <sup>thy</sup> they houses shall be filled, <sup>shall fill</sup> and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; <sup>as</sup> neither thy <sup>fathers</sup> fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he <sup>turned,</sup> turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh. <sup>7</sup> And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed? <sup>8</sup> And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, <sup>k</sup>Go, serve the LORD your God: but §who are they that shall go? <sup>9</sup> And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for <sup>n</sup>we must hold a feast unto the LORD. <sup>10</sup> And he said unto them, <sup>So be</sup> the LORD <sup>be so</sup> with you, as I will let you go, <sup>o</sup>and your little ones: look to it; for evil is <sup>5</sup>before you. <sup>11</sup> Not so: go now ye that are men, and serve the LORD; for that <sup>is what ye</sup> ye did desire.

And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

<sup>12</sup> And the LORD said unto Moses, <sup>a</sup>Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and <sup>c</sup>eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left.

<sup>13</sup> And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all <sup>the</sup> <sup>that</sup> night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. <sup>14</sup> And <sup>f</sup>the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the borders of Egypt; <sup>coasts</sup> of Egypt: very grievous were they; <sup>h</sup>before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. <sup>15</sup> For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they <sup>i</sup>did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green

<sup>21</sup> And the LORD said unto Moses, <sup>b</sup>Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, <sup>2</sup>even darkness which may be felt. <sup>22</sup> And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a <sup>d</sup>thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three <sup>days</sup> <sup>days</sup>; <sup>23</sup> they saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: <sup>e</sup>but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings. <sup>24</sup> And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and <sup>g</sup>said, Go ye, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: let <sup>i</sup>your little ones also go with you. <sup>25</sup> And Moses said, Thou must <sup>also</sup> <sup>give</sup> give into our hand §sus also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God. <sup>26</sup> Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall not an hoof be left behind; for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither. <sup>27</sup> But the LORD <sup>1</sup>hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go. <sup>28</sup> And Pharaoh said unto him, Get thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face no more; for in <sup>the</sup> <sup>that</sup> day thou seest my face thou shalt die. <sup>29</sup> And Moses said, Thou hast spoken <sup>well</sup>; <sup>o</sup>I will see thy face again no more.

<sup>1</sup> And <sup>g</sup>all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, <sup>by</sup>after their <sup>2</sup>journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup> <sup>h</sup>Wherefore the people <sup>strove</sup>strove <sup>did</sup>did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why <sup>strive</sup>strive <sup>chide</sup>chide ye with me? wherefore do ye <sup>i</sup>tempt the LORD? <sup>3</sup> And the people thirsted there for water; and <sup>k</sup>the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore <sup>hast</sup>hast <sup>is</sup>is this <sup>that thou hast</sup>that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst? <sup>4</sup> And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready <sup>o</sup>to stone me. <sup>5</sup> And the LORD said unto Moses, <sup>Pass</sup>Pass <sup>Go</sup>Go on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, <sup>p</sup>wherewith thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go. <sup>6</sup> <sup>q</sup>Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. <sup>7</sup> And he called the name of the place <sup>1a*</sup> Massah, and <sup>2d†</sup> Meribah, because of the striving of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

<sup>12</sup> And Moses said unto the LORD, See, <sup>b</sup>thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know

<sup>1</sup>whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, <sup>e</sup>I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

<sup>13</sup> Now therefore, I pray thee, <sup>e</sup>if I have found grace in thy sight, <sup>h</sup>shew me now thy ways, that I may know thee, to the end that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is <sup>i</sup>thy people. <sup>14</sup> And he said, <sup>j</sup>My presence shall go with thee, and <sup>k</sup>I will give thee rest. <sup>15</sup> And he said unto him, <sup>l</sup>If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence. <sup>16</sup> For wherein now shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight, I and thy people?

<sup>o</sup>is it not in that thou goest with us, <sup>p</sup>so that we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth?

<sup>17</sup> And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: <sup>r</sup>for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

<sup>18</sup> And he said, <sup>s</sup>Shew me, I pray thee, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory. <sup>19</sup> And he said, <sup>u</sup>I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and <sup>v</sup>I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and <sup>w</sup>I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy. <sup>20</sup> And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for

<sup>x</sup>man shall not see me, and live. <sup>21</sup> And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon the rock: <sup>22</sup> and it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put

man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it: 3 and they received of Moses all the offering, which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it withal. And they brought yet unto him freewill offerings every morning. 4 And all the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they wrought; 5 and they spake unto Moses, saying, The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to make. 6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing. 7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

8<sup>i</sup> And every wise hearted man among them that wrought the work of the tabernacle with ten curtains; of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, with cherubim the work of the scarlet: with cherubims of cunning workman made he them.

9 The length of each curtain was eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits: all the curtains had one measure. 10 And he coupled the five curtains one unto another: and the other five curtains he coupled one unto another. 11 And he made loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the <sup>edge of the</sup> <sup>uttermost side of</sup> <sup>second</sup> <sup>coupling of</sup> <sup>another curtain,</sup> <sup>in the</sup> <sup>coupling.</sup> <sup>the second.</sup> <sup>1</sup> <sup>2</sup> Fifty loops made he in the one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the <sup>second</sup> <sup>coupling of</sup> <sup>the loops</sup> <sup>were opposite one</sup> <sup>second</sup> <sup>held one curtain</sup> to another. <sup>13</sup> And he made fifty <sup>clasps</sup> <sup>taches</sup> of gold, and coupled the curtains one <sup>to</sup> <sup>unto</sup> another with the <sup>clasps</sup> <sup>taches</sup>: so the tabernacle was <sup>one.</sup> <sup>nacle.</sup> <sup>14</sup> And he made curtains of goats' hair for <sup>a</sup> <sup>the</sup> tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them. <sup>15</sup> The length of <sup>each</sup> <sup>one</sup> curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits <sup>was</sup> the breadth of <sup>each</sup> <sup>one</sup> curtain: the eleven curtains <sup>had</sup> <sup>one</sup> <sup>measure.</sup> <sup>16</sup> And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. <sup>17</sup> And he made fifty loops <sup>on the</sup> <sup>upon the</sup> <sup>uttermost</sup> <sup>edge of the</sup> <sup>curtain</sup> <sup>that was</sup> <sup>outmost</sup> in the <sup>coupling,</sup> and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which <sup>was</sup> <sup>outmost in the</sup> <sup>second</sup> <sup>coupling.</sup> <sup>18</sup> And he made fifty <sup>clasps</sup> <sup>taches</sup> of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one. <sup>19</sup> And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of <sup>sealskins</sup> <sup>badgers' skins</sup> <sup>above.</sup> <sup>bove that.</sup> <sup>20</sup> <sup>a</sup> And he made the boards for the tabernacle of <sup>acacia</sup> <sup>shittim</sup> wood, standing up. <sup>21</sup> Ten cubits was the length of a board, and <sup>a</sup> <sup>cubit and a half</sup> <sup>the breadth of a</sup> <sup>board was</sup> <sup>ten cubits,</sup> and <sup>the breadth of a</sup> <sup>board one cubit and a half.</sup> <sup>22</sup> Each board had two tenons, <sup>joined</sup> <sup>equally distant</sup> <sup>one</sup> <sup>to</sup> <sup>from</sup> another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle. <sup>23</sup> And he made the boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward: <sup>24</sup> and he made forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for <sup>its</sup> <sup>his</sup> two tenons, and

<sup>2</sup> <sup>n</sup>And he made the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. <sup>3</sup> And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, <sup>the work of the</sup> <sup>with</sup> <sup>cunning</sup> <sup>workman.</sup> <sup>work.</sup> <sup>4</sup> They made shoulderpieces for it, <sup>joined</sup> <sup>to couple it</sup> <sup>together:</sup> <sup>at</sup> <sup>by</sup> the two ends <sup>was it</sup> <sup>joined</sup> <sup>coupled</sup> together. <sup>5</sup> And he cunningly woven band, that was curious girdle of his ephod, upon it, to gird it on withal, was of the same piece and like the work thereof; of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Moses.

6 And they wrought the onyx tones, inclosed in ouches of gold, graven with the engravings of a signet, according to graven, as signets are graven, with the names of the children of Israel. 7 And he put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod, to shoulders of the ephod, that they should be stones of a memorial for the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.

8 <sup>a</sup> And he made the breastplate, the work of the cunning workman, like the work of the ephod; of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet,
and fine twined linen. 9 It was foursquare; they made the breastplate double: a span was the length thereof, and a span the breadth thereof, being double.

10 And they set in it four rows of stones: <sup>a row of</sup> the first row was a *sardius, topaz, and <sup>a carbuncle</sup> carbuncle: this was the first row. 11 And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond. 12 And the third row, a <sup>jacinth</sup> jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst. 13 And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: they were inclosed in ouches of gold in their <sup>settings</sup> inclosings.

14 And the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, every one according to his name, for the twelve tribes.

15 And they made upon the breastplate chains like cords, at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold rings; and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. 17 And they put the two wreathen chains of gold on the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. 18 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains they put on the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod, in the forepart thereof. 19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them upon the two ends of the breastplate, upon the edge thereof, which was toward border of it, on the side of the ephod inward. 20 And they made two rings of gold,

and put them on the two other golden rings, shoulderpieces of the ephod underneath, in the forepart thereof, close by the coupling thereof, above the cunningly woven band of the ephod.
21 And they did bind the breast-plate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be upon the cunningly woven band above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the ephod;
as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 <sup>b</sup> And he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue; 23 and the hole of the robe blue. And there was an hole in the midst thereof, as the hole of a coat of mail, with a binding round about the hole of it, that it should not be rent. 24 And they made upon the skirts of the robe pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen. 25 And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the skirts of the robe round about between the pomegranates; 26 a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, upon the skirts of the robe round about, to minister in; as the LORD commanded Moses.

Aaron, saying, <sup>9</sup> <sup>a</sup>Drink no wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the <sup>tent of meeting,</sup> tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations: <sup>10</sup> and <sup>3</sup>that ye may <sup>e</sup>put difference between <sup>the</sup> holy and the common, and between <sup>the</sup> unclean and <sup>the</sup> clean; <sup>11</sup> and <sup>3h</sup>that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

<sup>12</sup> And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take <sup>k</sup>the <sup>meal</sup> offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for <sup>n</sup>it is most holy: <sup>13</sup> and ye shall eat it in <sup>the</sup> holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the <sup>offerings</sup> sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for <sup>q</sup>so I am commanded. <sup>14</sup> And <sup>r</sup>the wave breast and <sup>the</sup> heave <sup>thigh</sup> shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they are given as <sup>be</sup> thy due, and thy sons' due, <sup>which</sup> are given out of the sacrifices of <sup>the</sup> peace offerings of the children of Israel. <sup>15</sup> <sup>t</sup>The heave <sup>thigh</sup> shoulder and the wave breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before the <sup>LORD</sup>: and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, <sup>as a due</sup> by a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded.

<sup>16</sup> And Moses diligently sought <sup>x</sup>the goat of the sin offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and with Ithamar, the sons of Aaron <sup>that were left,</sup> which were left alive, saying, <sup>17</sup> <sup>y</sup>Where-

<sup>34</sup> When ye be come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you <sup>e</sup> for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession; <sup>35</sup> <sup>then</sup> <sup>And</sup> he that owneth the house as it were <sup>g</sup> a plague in the house: <sup>36</sup> <sup>Then</sup> and the priest shall command that they * empty the house, before the priest go <sup>in</sup> <sup>into it</sup>

to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house: <sup>37</sup> and he shall look on the plague, and, behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow strakes, greenish or reddish, <sup>and the appearance thereof</sup> <sup>which in sight</sup> house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days: <sup>39</sup> and the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house; <sup>40</sup> then the priest shall command that they take <sup>out</sup> <sup>away</sup> the stones in which the plague is, and <sup>they</sup> shall cast them into an unclean place without the city: <sup>41</sup> and he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the <sup>mortar</sup> <sup>dust</sup> that they scrape off without the city into an unclean place: <sup>42</sup> and they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaister the house.

<sup>43</sup> And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken <sup>out</sup> away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plaistered; <sup>44</sup> then the priest shall come <sup>in</sup> and look, and, behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is <sup>e</sup>a fretting leprosy in the house: it is unclean. <sup>45</sup> And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the <sup>mortar</sup> of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place.

<sup>46</sup> Moreover he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up shall be unclean until the even. <sup>47</sup> And he that lieth in the house <sup>j</sup>shall wash his clothes; and he that eateth in the house shall wash his clothes.

five hundred: 29 and the tribe of Naphtali: and the prince of the children of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Enan: 30 and his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred. 31 All they that were numbered of the camp of Dan were an hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred. cThey shall set forth hindmost by their standards.

32 These are they that were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers' houses: all those that were numbered of the camps according to their hosts were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty. 33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses. 34 Thus did the children of Israel according to all that the LORD commanded Moses: so they pitched by their standards, and so they set forward, every one by their families, according to their fathers' houses.

1 Now these are the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that the LORD spake with Moses in mount Sinai. 2 And these are the names of the sons of Aaron; Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 3 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests which were appointed, whom he consecrated to minister in the priest's office. 4 And Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office in the presence of Aaron their father.

5 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 6 Bring the tribe of Levi near, and set them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him. 7 And they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tent of meeting, to do the service of the tabernacle. 8 And they shall keep all the furniture of the tent of meeting, the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle. 9 And thou shalt give the Levites unto Aaron and to his sons: they are wholly given unto him on the behalf of the children of Israel. 10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall keep their priesthood: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 12 And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn that openeth the womb among the children of Israel; and the Levites shall be mine: 13 Because all the firstborn are mine; for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast: mine they shall be; I am the LORD.

14 And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, 15 Number the children of Levi by their fathers' houses, after the house of their fathers, by their families: every male from a month old and upward shalt thou number them. 16 And Moses

Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph: and these are the names of his daughters; Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah.

LORD delivered unto me <sup>the</sup> two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which the LORD spake with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire <sup>d</sup>in the day of the assembly. <sup>11</sup> And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant. <sup>12</sup> And the LORD said unto me, <sup>f</sup>Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are <sup>i</sup>quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image. <sup>13</sup> <sup>j</sup>Furthermore the LORD spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is <sup>p</sup>a stiffnecked people: <sup>14</sup> <sup>l</sup>let me alone, that I may destroy them, and <sup>m</sup>blot out their name from under heaven: and <sup>n</sup>I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they. <sup>15</sup> <sup>o</sup>So I turned and came down from the mount, and <sup>q</sup>the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands. <sup>16</sup> And <sup>s</sup>I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your <sup>God</sup>; ye had made you a molten calf: <sup>i</sup>ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you. <sup>17</sup> And I took <sup>hold</sup> of the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes. <sup>18</sup> And I <sup>v</sup>fell down before the LORD, <sup>w</sup>as at the first, forty days and forty <sup>nights</sup>; I did neither eat <sup>bread</sup>, nor drink <sup>water</sup>; because of all your <sup>sin</sup> <sup>sins</sup> which ye sinned, <sup>y</sup>in doing <sup>that</sup> which was evil <sup>wickedly</sup> in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. <sup>19</sup> For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you. <sup>b</sup> But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also. <sup>20</sup> And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time. <sup>21</sup> And <sup>d</sup> I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, <sup>grinding and ground</sup> it very small, <sup>even</sup> until it was as <sup>fine</sup> small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount. <sup>22</sup> And at <sup>g</sup> Taberah, and at <sup>h</sup> Massah, and at <sup>i</sup> Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the LORD to wrath. <sup>23</sup> <sup>And Likewise</sup> <sup>l</sup> when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and <sup>o</sup> ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice. <sup>24</sup> <sup>q</sup> Ye have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you. <sup>25</sup> <sup>So Thus</sup> I fell down before the LORD the forty days and forty <sup>nights that</sup> nights, as I fell down <sup>at the first</sup>; because the LORD had said he would destroy you. <sup>26</sup> <sup>And I prayed I prayed therefore</sup> unto the LORD, and said, O Lord God, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand. <sup>27</sup> Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin: <sup>28</sup> lest the land whence thou broughtest us

<sup>1</sup> And Joshua the son of 2 Nun <sup>was</sup> sent out of Shittim two men <sup>as spies</sup> secretly, saying, Go view the land, and Jericho. And they went, and came into <sup>the house of</sup> an harlot whose name was <sup>named</sup> <sup>n</sup> Rahab, and <sup>lay</sup> <sup>lodged</sup> there. <sup>2</sup> And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in hither <sup>to-night</sup> of the children of Israel to search out the <sup>land</sup> country. <sup>3</sup> And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, which are entered into thine house: for they be come to search out all the <sup>land</sup> country. <sup>4</sup> And the woman took the two men, and hid <sup>them</sup>; and <sup>she said</sup>, Yea, the men came unto me, but I wist not whence they were: <sup>5</sup> and it came to pass about the time of <sup>the</sup> shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out: whither the men went I wot not: pursue after them quickly; for ye shall overtake them. <sup>6</sup> But she had brought them up to the <sup>roof</sup> of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof. <sup>7</sup> And the men pursued after them the way to Jordan <sup>b</sup> unto the fords: and as soon as they which pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate. <sup>8</sup> And before they were laid down, she came up unto them upon the roof; <sup>9</sup> and she said unto the men, I know that the LORD hath given you this land, <sup>d</sup> and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land <sup>have</sup> melted away before you. <sup>10</sup> For we have heard how the LORD <sup>dried</sup> up the water of the Red <sup>Sea</sup> before you when ye came out of Egypt: and <sup>h</sup> what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that were <sup>beyond</sup> Jordan, unto <sup>i</sup> Sihon and to Og, whom ye utterly destroyed. <sup>11</sup> And <sup>as</sup> soon as ye had heard <sup>these things</sup>, <sup>our</sup> hearts did melt, neither <sup>did</sup> there remain any more <sup>spirit</sup> courage in us, man, because of you: for <sup>o</sup> the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, and <sup>on</sup> in the earth beneath. <sup>12</sup> Now therefore, I pray you, swear unto me by the LORD, since I have <sup>dealt</sup> kindly with you, that ye <sup>also</sup> will deal kindly with <sup>my father</sup> my father's house, and <sup>give</sup> me a true token: <sup>13</sup> and that ye will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and that they have, and <sup>will</sup> deliver our lives from death. <sup>14</sup> And the men <sup>said</sup> unto her, Our <sup>business</sup> is for yours, if ye utter not our <sup>business</sup>. Joshua <sup>had</sup> said unto the two men that had spied out the

Joshua saved Rahab the <sup>harlot</sup> alive, and her father's household, and all that she had, did Joshua save alive; and <sup>she</sup> dwelt in the midst of Israel, <sup>dwelleth</sup> in Israel, <sup>even</sup> unto this day; because she hid the messengers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho. <sup>26</sup> And Joshua charged them with an oath <sup>at that time,</sup> saying, <sup>k</sup> Cursed be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho:

Ai. <sup>3</sup> And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up; but let <sup>s</sup> about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai and <sup>toil</sup> make not all the people to labour thither; for they are but few. <sup>4</sup> So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men: and <sup>d</sup> they fled before the men of Ai. <sup>5</sup> And the men

Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the <sup>chiefs</sup> <sup>captains</sup> of the men of war which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them. <sup>25</sup> And Joshua said unto them, <sup>b</sup> Fear not, nor be <sup>dismayed</sup>; be strong and of good courage: <sup>d</sup> for thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight. <sup>26</sup> And afterward Joshua smote them, and <sup>put them to death,</sup> <sup>slew them,</sup> and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening. <sup>27</sup> And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and <sup>g</sup> they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had <sup>hidden themselves,</sup> <sup>been hid,</sup> and laid great stones <sup>on the</sup> <sup>in the cave's</sup> mouth of the cave, unto <sup>mouth,</sup> <sup>which remain until</sup> this very day. <sup>28</sup> And <sup>that day</sup> Joshua took Makkedah <sup>on that day,</sup> and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king <sup>thereof;</sup> <sup>thereof</sup> he <sup>1</sup> utterly destroyed them, and all the souls that were therein; he <sup>left</sup> <sup>none</sup> remaining: and he did to the king of Makkedah <sup>as he</sup> <sup>had done</sup> unto the king of Jericho.

40 So Joshua smote all the land, the hill country, and the South, country of the hills, and of the south, and the lowland, and of the slopes, and of the vale, and of the springs, and all their kings; he left none remaining: <sup>c</sup>but he <sup>1</sup>utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD, the LORD God of Israel, commanded.

<sup>10</sup> So Joshua took all that land, <sup>b</sup>the hill country, and all the South, <sup>c</sup>the south country, and <sup>e</sup>all the land of Goshen, <sup>f</sup>and the lowland, <sup>f</sup>and the Arabah, <sup>g</sup>and the hill country of Israel, and the lowland valley of the same; <sup>17</sup> Even from <sup>*the</sup> <sup>1</sup>mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon under <sup>1</sup>mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and put them to death. <sup>18</sup> Joshua made war <sup>a</sup>a long time with all those kings. <sup>19</sup> There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: they took all in battle. <sup>20</sup> For it was of the LORD <sup>u</sup>to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might utterly destroy them, and that they <sup>4</sup>might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>21</sup> And Joshua came at that time, at that time came Joshua, and cut off <sup>a</sup>the Anakim from the land, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel: Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities. <sup>22</sup> There was none of the Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, <sup>c</sup>in Gath, and in Ashdod, <sup>d</sup>there remained.

I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my <sup>4s</sup>present, and <sup>lay set</sup> it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again. <sup>19</sup> And Gideon went in, <sup>b</sup>and made ready <sup>1a</sup>a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of <sup>meal</sup> flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the <sup>1o</sup>oak, and presented it. <sup>20</sup> And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them <sup>f</sup>upon this rock, and <sup>g</sup>pour out the broth. And he did so.

<sup>21</sup> Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; <sup>j</sup>and there <sup>went rose</sup>up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened <sup>cakes; and</sup> cakes. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again. <sup>7</sup> §Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet revealed unto him. <sup>8</sup> And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou <sup>calledst</sup><sub>didst call</sub> me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child. <sup>9</sup> Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place. <sup>10</sup> And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel <sup>said</sup><sub>answered</sub>, Speak; for thy servant heareth. <sup>11</sup> And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, <sup>at</sup> which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle. <sup>12</sup> In that day I will perform against Eli <sup>all</sup> <sup>that</sup> <sup>things which</sup> I have spoken concerning his <sup>house, from the beginning even unto the end:</sup> <sup>13</sup> <sup>**</sup>For I have told him that I will judge his house for ever, <sup>for</sup> the iniquity which he <sup>knew</sup><sub>knoweth</sub>; <sup>1</sup>because his sons <sup>did</sup> bring a curse upon themselves, <sup>and</sup> <sup>made themselves</sup> †vile, and he †restrained them not. <sup>14</sup> And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, <sup>p</sup>that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be <sup>6</sup>purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever. <sup>15</sup> And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD.

And Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision. <sup>16</sup> Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he <sup>said,</sup> answered, Here am I. <sup>17</sup> And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath <sup>spoken</sup> unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: <sup>b</sup>God do so to thee, and *more also, if thou hide any †thing from me of all the things that he <sup>spake</sup> said unto thee. <sup>18</sup> And Samuel told him †every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, <sup>d</sup>It is the LORD: let him do what seemeth him good. <sup>19</sup> <sup>e</sup>And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, <sup>f</sup>and did let none of his words fall to the ground. <sup>20</sup> And all Israel <sup>g</sup>from Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was <sup>s</sup>established to be a prophet of the LORD. <sup>21</sup> And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel <sup>h</sup>in Shiloh <sup>i</sup>by the word of the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> So the people sent to Shiloh, <sup>and they brought</sup> that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, <sup>a</sup>which <sup>3</sup>sitteth upon the cherubim <sup>d</sup>dwelleth between the cherubims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. <sup>5</sup> And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel <sup>c</sup>shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again. <sup>6</sup> And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp. <sup>7</sup> And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! for there hath not been such a thing <sup>ss</sup>heretofore. <sup>8</sup> Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty <sup>gods</sup> Gods? these are the <sup>gods</sup> Gods that smote the Egyptians with all <sup>manner of</sup> the <sup>4</sup>plagues in the wilderness. <sup>9</sup> <sup>i</sup>Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, <sup>m</sup>as they have been to you: *quit yourselves like men, and fight. <sup>10</sup> And the Philistines fought, <sup>n</sup>and Israel was smitten, <sup>o</sup>and they fled every man <sup>to</sup> into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen. <sup>11</sup> <sup>p</sup>And the ark of God was taken; <sup>q</sup>and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, †were slain. <sup>12</sup> And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the <sup>2</sup>army, and came to Shiloh the same day <sup>s</sup>with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head.

<sup>29</sup> And also the <sup>1*</sup>Strength of Israel <sup>a</sup>will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent. <sup>30</sup> Then he said, I have sinned: yet <sup>c</sup>honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, <sup>e</sup>and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God. <sup>31</sup> So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

<sup>32</sup> Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him <sup>2</sup>delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past. <sup>33</sup> And Samuel said, <sup>i</sup>As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. <sup>34</sup> Then Samuel went <sup>l</sup>to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to <sup>n</sup>Gibeah of Saul.
<sup>35</sup> <sup>2</sup>And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death; <sup>32</sup>for death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: <sup>r</sup>and the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

<sup>4</sup> And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Beth-lehem. And the elders of the city <sup>d</sup>came to meet him trembling, and said, town trembled at his coming, <sup>f</sup>Comest thou peaceably? <sup>5</sup> And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: <sup>g</sup>sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.
<sup>6</sup> And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on <sup>4</sup> <sup>h</sup>Eliab, and said, Surely the LORD's anointed is before him.
<sup>7</sup> But the LORD said unto Samuel, <sup>j</sup>Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have <sup>rejected</sup> <sup>refused</sup> him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the <sup>11</sup>outward appearance, <sup>m</sup>but the LORD looketh on the heart. <sup>8</sup> Then Jesse called <sup>o</sup>Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And the LORD said, <sup>a</sup>Arise, anoint him: for this is he. <sup>13</sup> Then Samuel took <sup>c</sup>the horn of oil, <sup>d</sup>and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: <sup>e</sup>and the spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. <sup>14</sup> <sup>g</sup>Now the spirit of the LORD had departed from Saul, <sup>h</sup>and an evil spirit from the LORD <sup>2†</sup>troubled him. <sup>15</sup> And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee. <sup>16</sup> Let our lord now command thy servants, <sup>i</sup>which are before thee, to seek out a <sup>man</sup> <sup>man</sup>, who is a cunning player on <sup>the</sup> <sup>an</sup> harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall <sup>n</sup>play with his hand, and thou shalt be well. <sup>17</sup> And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me. <sup>18</sup> Then answered one of the <sup>young men,</sup> <sup>servants,</sup> and said, Behold, I have <sup>j</sup>seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, <sup>q</sup>and a mighty <sup>man of valour,</sup> <sup>valiant man,</sup> and a man of war, and <sup>3</sup>prudent in <sup>4</sup>speech, <sup>1</sup>and <sup>1</sup>matters, and a comely person, <sup>r</sup>and the LORD is with him. <sup>19</sup> Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, <sup>t</sup>which is with the sheep. <sup>20</sup> <sup>u</sup>And Jesse took an ass <sup>laden</sup> with bread, and a <sup>5</sup>bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul. <sup>21</sup> And David came to Saul, <sup>v</sup>and stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armourbearer. <sup>22</sup> And Saul sent to Jesse, saying,

<sup>1</sup> Now the Philistines I7 <sup>f</sup>gathered together their armies to battle, and they were gathered together at <sup>i</sup>Socoh, <sup>Shochoh</sup>, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between <sup>Socoh</sup> <sup>Shochoh</sup> and <sup>j</sup>Azekah, in <sup>k</sup>Ephes-dammim. <sup>2</sup> And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched in <sup>m</sup>the <sup>vale</sup> of <sup>6</sup>Elah, and <sup>l</sup>set the battle in array against the Philistines. <sup>3</sup> And the Philistines stood on <sup>the</sup> <sup>a</sup>mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on <sup>the</sup> <sup>a</sup>mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them. <sup>4</sup> And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named <sup>o</sup>Goliath, of <sup>p</sup>Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. <sup>5</sup> And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he was <sup>clad</sup> <sup>**armed</sup> with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass. <sup>6</sup> And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a <sup>7</sup>javelin <sup>††target</sup> of brass between his shoulders. <sup>7</sup> And the <sup>8</sup>staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head <sup>weighed</sup> six hundred shekels of iron: <sup>v</sup>and <sup>his shield-bearer</sup> <sup>one bearing a shield</sup> went before him. <sup>8</sup> And he stood and cried unto the <sup>9</sup>armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and ye <sup>x</sup>servants to Saul? choose you would not I tell it thee? <sup>10</sup> Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell <sup>me if perchance me? or what if</sup> thy father answer thee roughly? <sup>11</sup> And Jonathan said unto David, <sup>Come Come,</sup> and let us go out into the field.
